

Night of Love and Honour

A proud Ikal Angelei of Friends of Lake Turkana with her Spread the Love Environmental Award

A happy Boniface Mwangi with his Spread the Love Media Award

Evans Muriu of Wanadamu poses with his Spread the Love award for Innovation

Curtains came down on Spread the Love Campaign on Tuesday, September 13, 2011 at a colourful first ever Spread the Love Honours night, as ordinary people who have done extraordinary things in the society were recognised and rewarded at the Crowne Plaza Hotel in Nairobi.

An initiative of Kijiji Records and Faida Investment Bank, the Spread the Love Campaign aims to activate and mobilise the Kenyan middle class to participate in transforming lives and communities through their own initiatives or supporting existing social impact initiatives with their professional qualifications, natural gifts and skills as primary tools. Kanjii Mbugua, proprietor of Kijiji Records and founder of Spread the Love said the initiative would spread to Uganda, Zambia, Congo, USA, Germany, Mexico, and Haiti.

Entertainment was provided by Neema, Righa and Atemi while the awards were presented by Bob Karina, Director Faida Investment Bank; Gina Din Kariuki, CEO Gina Din Corporate Communications; Peter Nduati, CEO Resolution Health; Kambua, gospel singer; and DJ Pinye, a popular Kenyan deejay, among others.

With stories that moved the audience, recipients from ten categories received recognition. Those honoured were:

- Ikal Angelei; Friends of Lake Turkana - Environmental Award
- Alice Mwangera - Morris Moses

Foundation - Health Award

Evans Muriu - Wanadamu - Innovation Award

Pastor Simon Mbevi - Transform Kenya - Family Award

Muthoni Munene - Palmhouse Foundation - Education Award

Brian Murimi - Movement 58 - Under 21

Tabitha Tongoi - A Book for Change

Margaret Ngunjiri - Lang'ata Women's Prison - Governance Award

Boniface Mwangi - Picha Mtaani - Media Award

Ingrid Munro - Jamii Bora - Business Award

Ahmed Salim - #FeedKE - Philanthropy Award.